

Reliance Matrix Joins Alight Carrier Partner Program

PHILADELPHIA, PA – June 13, 2023 - Reliance Matrix, an employee benefits company and provider of technology enabled absence and productivity services, is pleased to announce its partnership as part of the Carrier Partner Program with Alight, Inc. (NYSE: ALIT), a leading cloud-based human capital technology and services provider. This new partnership empowers Reliance Matrix to begin connecting its proprietary data integration platform, Matrixlink®, to Alight's employee experience platform, Alight Worklife®, for mutual absence and employee benefits clients.

The Carrier Partner Program creates integration points between Reliance Matrix and Alight, improving the experience for mutual clients to support administration efficiencies.

“The key advantage of Matrixlink is that it makes it easier for our clients to manage their benefits program on their system,” said Patrick Trinsey, Chief Marketing Officer of Reliance Matrix. “When that chosen system is Alight, we know the service expectations are high, and the efficiencies and productivity gains we can help deliver are especially meaningful.”

Partnership features include:

Easier implementation and enrollment — The Alight Worklife platform saves time and provides an enhanced employee experience and ease of use for employers to administer current and new benefit plans.

- Cost savings — Strategic and process efficiencies help drive cost savings for Reliance Matrix customers on the Alight platform.
- Value and expertise — High-level expertise and guidance on each account ensures users receive top-quality services.
- More personalized employee experience — The Alight Worklife platform helps promote thoughtful product placement, where and when employees need them.
